Directions to MOCRA and Parking Options

Location
The Museum of Contemporary Religious Art (MOCRA) is located on the campus of Saint Louis University in midtown St. Louis, Missouri. Saint Louis University is easily accessible from all major local interstates. See next page for directions.

MOCRA sits at the intersection of West Pine Blvd. and Spring Ave. (both streets have been closed off to vehicular traffic). There are a clock tower and plaza at this intersection; MOCRA sits on the southwest corner of the plaza. MOCRA is an easy walk from Lindell Blvd. at Spring Ave. on the north, or Laclede Ave. at Spring Ave. to the south.

Parking
MOCRA has a handful of parking spaces located behind the building. Enter the driveway adjacent to the building of 3761 Laclede Avenue, between Vandeventer and Spring on the north side of the street, proceed to the alley at the driveway’s end, then turn right and come up behind MOCRA’s building. Pass into the gated lot and park. Please notify a staff member that you have parked in this lot; you will need a temporary parking permit. Two spaces for handicapped parking are also located in this lot.

Metered parking (free on Sundays) is available on Laclede Ave. and Spring Ave. to the south, and on Lindell Blvd. and Spring Ave. to the north. In addition, there is a University Parking Garage on Laclede Ave. at Grand Blvd. that offers visitor parking for $1.50/hr (also free on Sundays).
